DETAILED ACTION

This is the First Office Action in response to the Election filed June 27, 2008 for the above identified patent application.

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-5 and 9 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on June 27, 2008.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 6-8 in the reply filed on June 27, 2008 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that both the non-elected method claims and the elected product claims are so linked as to form a single general inventive concept. This is not found persuasive because the structural features of claim 6 are not inventive as described in the following claim rejection. Further, claim 1 does not define the general concept of the nut having a convex rounding at a through hole and lying on the inner circumference of the nut. The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement filed March 17, 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Art Unit: 3682

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

- a. Claim 8 contains method limitations on how to manufacture a nut apparatus. Since claim 8 is an apparatus claim, the method limitations defining the sequence of manufacturing steps in forming the device has been given limited patentable weight. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moser (FR 2204271).

Moser illustrates a screw nut having a through hole for accepting a deflecting piece (8-10), wherein a rim of the through hole on the inner circumference of the nut has a convex rounding.

8. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blurock et al. (USP 4,274,297).

Blurock et al. illustrates (Fig. 10) a screw nut having a through hole for accepting a deflecting piece, wherein a rim of the through hole on the inner circumference of the nut has a convex rounding.

Art Unit: 3682

9. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Watanabe (USP 7,080,571).

Watanabe illustrates a screw nut having a through hole for accepting a deflecting piece (4), wherein a rim of the through hole on the inner circumference of the nut has a convex rounding (25).
